

June
Literature

The Marble Crusher

CHAPTERS 6 & 7

Stepping inside a character - Points of view

INTERACTIVE WORD CLOUD

WRITE ONE OR TWO WORDS TO DEFINE “NARRATOR”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DsIKbwkuiVA>

CHECK YOUR ANSWERS WITH THIS VIDEO! WERE YOU RIGHT?

Match the different types of narrators to their definitions

Type of Narrator	Definitions
1)Third Person Omniscient	A) Writer's or character point of view (clue words: I/My/Mine)
2)First Person Perspective	B) The view is like a god because he/she knows facts and feelings of the characters
3)Third Person Objective	C) The narrator speaks directly to you (clue words: You/Your/Yours)
4)Second person Perspective	D) This is a reporter's view without knowing about the character's feelings

Stepping inside the role of a character

Stepping inside the role of a character

Perceive

- What can the person see, observe or notice? - Provide examples

Know

- What might the person believe?

Care about

- What might the person care about?
- Worries

Assessment time!

Place a check mark
in the box that best answers each question

Questions to ask to myself	All the time 	Most of the time 	Some of the time 	Not this time
Did I stay focused the entire time I was reading?
Did I understand the story I was reading?
Did I back up and reread to make sure when I did not understand?
Am I able to read for a longer amount of time each week?

A young girl with long brown hair, wearing a yellow dress with white polka dots, is smiling and looking to her right. She is holding several large, colorful balloons in shades of orange, pink, yellow, and teal. The background is a soft, out-of-focus sky with light blue and white tones.

“Once you learn to read,
you will be forever free.”

-Frederick Douglass

Be you!